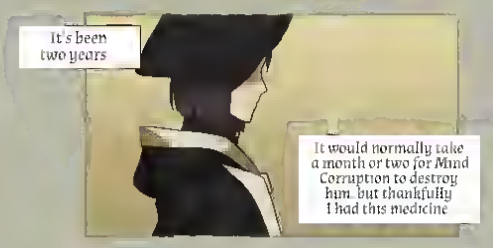
Abide in the Wind

Episode 3 • Labyrinth of the Ancients

Story • Art Shin Weol



It's been two years
It would normally take a month or two for Mind Corruption to destroy him. but thankfully I had this medicine

I've notified the higher ups and changed the location as well

Now I just hope his consciousness will come back soon

Who are you?!

An intruder?
Who are you?!

He's quick.
If I want to chase after him
Is that you Kaneta?

Prince Lexion?!
Can you recognize me?!

What happened at Red Rock Passage two years ago?

How do you know about it?
A religious fanatic group murdered her highness while she was visiting her home.
The young prince who was with her went missing, too.
The higher ups, despite not having solid proof
decided to put all the blame on you, just because you were there at the time.

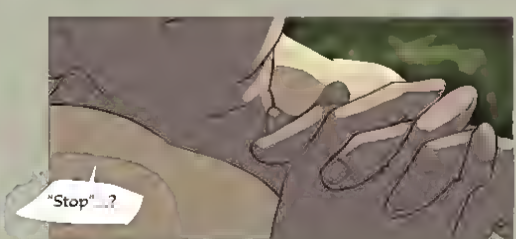
They also took away your royal status...
But I do not believe them!
You are not someone who would commit such a crime!

Indeed, she did die...
You must hurry and regain your strength...

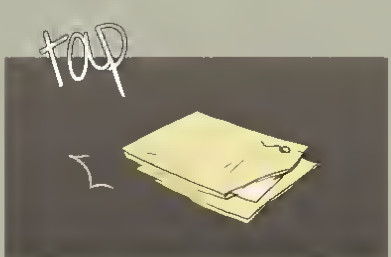
Prince Lexion...?
...It doesn't matter anymore...

I've heard.
I'm so sorry for your loss.

Thank you for your help all this time.
Now that I no longer need "Black Eye", I would like to stop trading...



"Stop"...?



tap

What are these files..?
My, my my, my my...my... You seem to have released some of the slaves that should have been in Dorton.
I could have you arrested for this illegal action.
That has nothing to do with this matter!
I've heard that your parents are running a store in the Kingdom...
You have your brothers as well...
If you get arrested for a capital offense, your entire family will become slaves.
What a wonderful law.

Our trade isn't over yet.
That god damn despicable toad!!
CRASH

Black Eye...

Soon afterwards the Dragon Knights were supplied with Black Eyes for personal use, but it was far too little to be used as medicine so she couldn't stop the trade

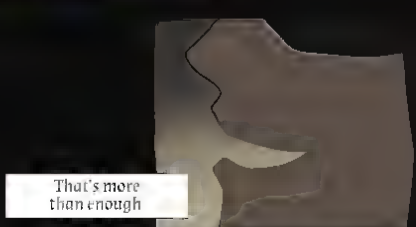
So this is what it has come to...

Yeah... I never got to use it since I always gave it to that person...

Normal dosage: 2-3 drops



That's more than enough

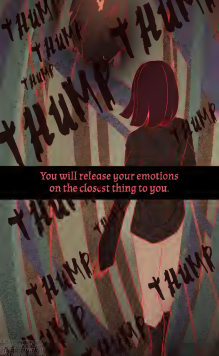
and your reasoning becomes unclear.



THUMP

Black Eye
a mind-enhancement drug that's given to Dragon Knights
Its usage is normally forbidden, unless in a dire situation...
because all five senses become sharper and your judgment is blurred
You could feel extreme happiness or ecstasy
However, if you have even the slightest of doubts it will be your doomsday. You'll start cursing the world. Your reasoning becomes clouded.
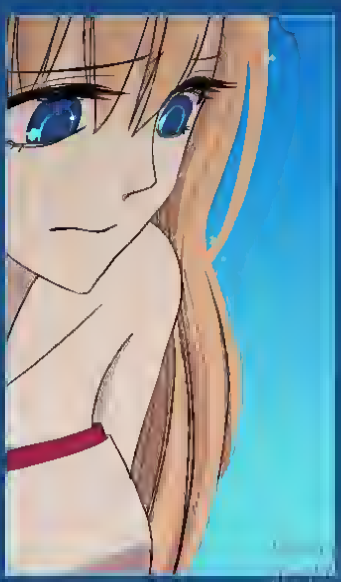
You often get haunted by hallucinations.
It's a drug so potent that only contractors are capable of using it.



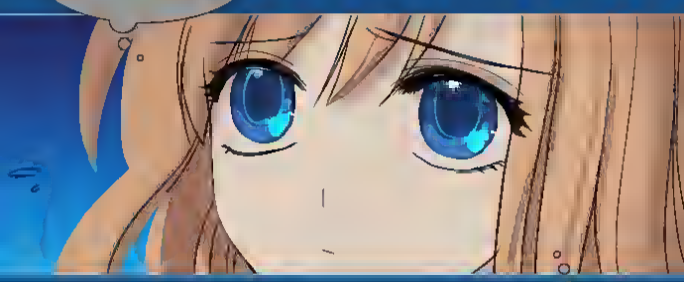
The scary part about Black Eye is that it temporarily puts you in the zone.

However the substance doesn't dissipate from your body. The more you consume, the more it builds up.

so it's easy to get addicted to [illegible] you eventually exceed the normal dosage.

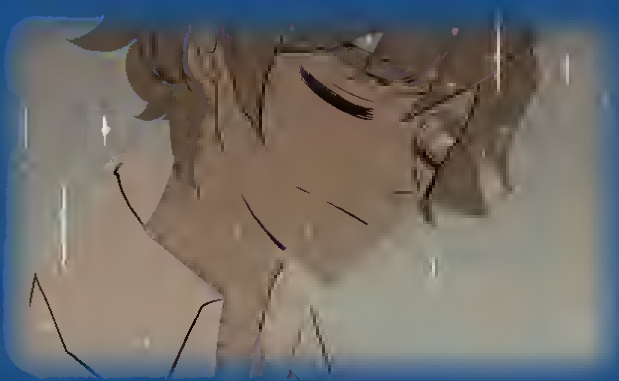
you will become Blackdome and die on the spot.

This person has consumed quite a lot of Black Eye



Even if I cleanse it, the soul has already been ripped into pieces. I wonder if she's going to be alright...

The previous human...



was vaporized because he no longer had a soul.

If it's broken, I can just put it back together.
